Exiled Prince Held In Motor Car Death

By The Associated Press.

NEW YORK, April 26.—Prince Alexis Dawydoff, 35, exiled scion of Russian nobility, was under arrest in the prison ward of Bellevue hospital today, charged with automobile homicide after his car had jumped a Fifth avenue curbing causing the death of one woman and injuries to himself and a second woman companion.

Mrs. Margaret Abrams, 22, wife of James Abrams, an executive of a bond brokerage firm, was fatally injured when thrown from the car. Mrs. Zinovia Manning, 36, the other passenger, was cut and bruised as was Prince Alexis.

Dawydoff, who is the son of Princess Marie Obolensky, is a magazine editor (Air Trails). He reported he was driving the two women home when he lost control and the auto hit a building at 40th street.
